MADISON POLICE UNION ANNOUNCES CITY COUNCIL ENDORSEMENTS

MADISON—The Madison Professional Police Officers Association (MPPOA) today announced their endorsements for the upcoming city council elections on April 7. The endorsements were made on the basis of the candidate's responses to personal interviews and written questionnaires.

"Our members are dedicated to working to protect and promote the quality of public safety in Madison", said Dan Frei, MPPOA's President. "After studying the candidates and their views on the issues that matter to us, we are confident that these individuals share our values and will help support us to safeguard our community".

The following candidates were awarded endorsements:

DISTRICT 2

Bridget Maniaci

DISTRICT 5

Hamilton Arendsen

DISTRICT 7

Steve King

DISTRICT 8

Bryon Eagon

DISTRICT 11

Chris Schmidt

DISTRICT 15

Larry Palm

Joe Clausius

The MPPOA is a member of the Wisconsin Professional Police Association (WPPA), which with nearly 11,000 members from more than 390 local associations statewide, is the state's largest law enforcement group.
